About Relish

At Relish Catering & Events, we have a passion for making your vision come to life. We work with you to create and customize everything from food to decor. We want your experience to be as personalized and unique as it is delicious.

There is no set menu; the Relish experience is all about personalization. Our chefs make everything from scratch and every menu is customized. We want to hear your unique story and make a menu full of fresh food and unique dishes that represent your special event.

Our chefs use Colorado-fresh ingredients as much as possible and all meat and seafood is sustainably raised and sourced. Our customized menus are unique and seasonal, truly showcasing the local goodness the Colorado area has to offer. You and your guests will remember our food with the happiest of memories.

Your Event Experts

NATALIE SEARS

Her extensive knowledge of food and service is unmatched in the catering industry. Creating unique and personal experiences for her clients is what keeps her excited about every day at the office. When Natalie isn't creating special events, she enjoys spending time with her family (there's a lot of them) and cheering on the Colorado Rockies.

PAUL NOVAK

The leader of the kitchen and culinary team, Paul has a knack for adding something special to every menu. With over 25 years of culinary experience at some of the top restaurants in Denver, California, and Santa Fe, Paul brings a diverse range of culinary specialties and knowledge of unique flavor profiles.

SPECIAL EVENTS STAFF

On your special day the Relish Service Staff will take care of all the details. Led by the event captain, the team will handle every element of your event from the setup, to the service during reception, until the end of the night when they clean up, allowing you to enjoy your wedding night. All of the staff at your event has been through training and are professionals that will ensure your day runs smoothly.

What our Customers are Saying...

Everyone at our wedding raved over the food! 270+ people and the catering was without a hitch! - Ashley

The Catering staff did a phenomenal job making my special day stress free. We just can't thank them enough! - Michele

Our guests could not stop talking about how good the food was! We loved Relish because they do local ingredients and you can truly customize your menu. - Shanna
